

RACINE WRITER-IN-RESIDENCE APPLICATION

(For July 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024 Residency)

The Racine Writer-In-Residence (WIR) program is an initiative founded by ArtRoot (a collaboration of artists and arts advocates who are determined to reinvigorate Racine, WI through the arts), supported by the Racine Literacy Council (RLC), and funded by a generous grant from the Osborne & Scekic Family Foundation. Through this program, we seek to spotlight Racine and Kenosha's dynamic literary community while encouraging, supporting, and advocating on behalf of writers at all stages of their careers.

Two six-month residencies are available each year for emerging, mid-career, and established writers who reside in Racine or Kenosha counties. Residencies take place January through June and July through December. Candidates are awarded a $1,500.00 stipend (75% initially and 25% upon completion of expectations and an evaluation form).

Applicant Expectations

In return for a $1,500.00 stipend, the WIR is expected to:

- Publish one weekly blog post on the racinewir.com website. Topics are the choice of the WIR.
- Develop and execute one community-based collaboration or project. Examples include, but are not limited to: artist talks, school-based projects, a collaborative exhibition, a writers' group or workshop, etc.
- Work with coordinator to establish a location for WIR to take up residence while writing. We'd like to encourage public interaction with the WIR whenever possible. Past residencies have taken place at coffee shops, studios, and art galleries.

Applicant Requirements

The WIR must:

- Be a Racine/Kenosha county resident.
- Be 18 years of age or older.
- Possess a record of past achievements, strong artistic merit, commitment towards advancing the literary art form, and be an active contributor to the literary arts scene.
- Submit a cover letter, not to exceed one page in length that outlines the following:
 - If applicable, names of publications that have published your work.
 - Information on any recognition you have received as a writer.
 - Any educational work in the literary arts.
 - Places where you have presented your work in the last two years.
 - Information on your professional career, volunteer work, and hobbies as they apply to the literary arts and to literacy in general.
 - The reason why you wish to become the WIR.
- Submit three writing samples, limited to one page each, as separate Microsoft Word documents, either digitally or through physical mail (see below for addresses). Font should be 12 pt. Please place your name and contact information on each page. Diversity in writing is a plus.
- Submit one page describing the community-based collaboration or project you would like to develop as the WIR.
